

I implore you to keep the current ownership regulations in place and not submit to the pressures and finances of the mega-powered media conglomerates. The state of radio alone in this nation has deteriorated to far too few owners and too much of a frightening potential for one voice in the media. Please keep the PUBLIC interests in mind rather than the good of the PRIVATE sector.

Sincerely,
Mona Hughes